*We cannot thank enough
the many alumni,
parents, faculty, staff,
and board members who continue to play such an important role in supporting our efforts.*

Dear Friends,

What a year it was! The fall started with a faculty scavenger hunt throughout the woods and trails of the local Audubon property (only one group got lost), and concluded with Rectory's first-ever Zoom graduation, which represented the culmination of an all-online spring. Along the way, we encountered as many firsts as one could imagine, and in typical Rectory fashion, our school grew stronger from them. These firsts and corresponding multi-faceted successes appeared in the form of further improvements to school facilities; ongoing work with our academic program, which included a rather abrupt pivot to distance learning for all in the spring; and continued focus on a grand year to come as we celebrate our centennial and enter a second century of excellence in education.

John Bigelow, fondly known as Mr. John, remains Rectory's longest-serving headmaster and it is with great pride we begin our centennial year celebrating a re-opening of the Bigelow Academic building. First constructed in 1982, this building has been the hub of learning for decades. Now it retains that distinction, albeit under significantly improved conditions. With state-of-the-art technology, new classroom furniture, new windows to better control the environmental conditions, and new lighting, flooring, and wall treatments, these spaces now provide a most conducive environment for learning.

Activity in the academic building did come to an abrupt halt in March, however, as Rectory made the decision to go online in the face of a global pandemic. Spring vacation then became a work period for our teachers as we considered a never before attempted mode of learning: fully remote education—even for our elementary students. I could not have been more impressed with, or more appreciative of, the incredible effort they demonstrated, all in the interest of our students' well being. Even the students noticed the undertaking and the results as we surveyed them about their online experience. Many shared the sentiment of Carson, who wrote:

"Thank you again, Rectory, for giving us a home and a safe shelter. Thank you for making our days bright and sunny during this COVID-19 storm. Thank you for giving us hope and warmth. Thank you for erasing the distance between us. Thank you!" Carson L. '21

For the first time ever, Rectory recorded two successive years of million-dollar plus giving to the Annual Fund. And we continue to receive support for our Campaign for a Century, which now stands at over $26 million. As we look to our new century, we are so appreciative of this generosity, which will allow Rectory to take bold steps forward in our centennial year and beyond. Our students couldn't be more fortunate and our community more grateful.

Rectory truly is built on relationships. This year was a success because of our teachers, learning specialists, advisors, students, parents, and alumni...and you! Thank you for supporting Rectory.

Sincerely,

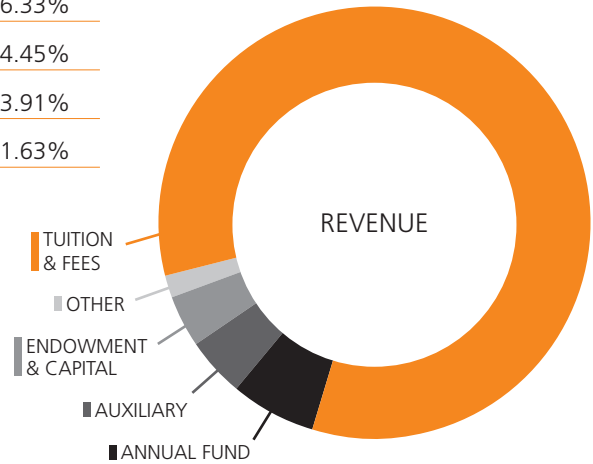

Frederick W. Williams. Headmaster

TANG ENDOWMENT DRAW FOR FISCAL YEARS 2017–2020

From fiscal year 2017 through fiscal year 2020, this growing endowment has generated money that Rectory is able to use to increase faculty salaries.

The Brad Seaward Scholarship Fund

We thank the donors who joined us in recognizing the legacy of one of Rectory's beloved faculty by supporting today's students.

The Brad Seaward Scholarship, given in honor of Rectory's beloved teacher, coach, and administrator, is awarded to a boarding applicant for Grade 7 or above who presents potential in all the areas in which Mr. Seaward excelled: as an athlete, a mentor, and as one who seeks to improve the lives of others on a daily basis. The endowed scholarship follows a student across his/her Rectory years so that only one Seaward Scholar exists at any given time.

Ninth Grade Class Gift: Faculty Coffee Station

A new faculty coffee station will be installed and used by faculty, staff, and others every day in honor of the class of 2020.

— THANK YOU. CLASS OF 2020! —

The Class of 2020 certainly knows how to give a good gift! As you can tell from their smiles and thanks, our faculty and staff appreciate a good cup of coffee, and will be thankful for the Class of 2020 as they caffeinate throughout the years.

IS FOR FACULTY

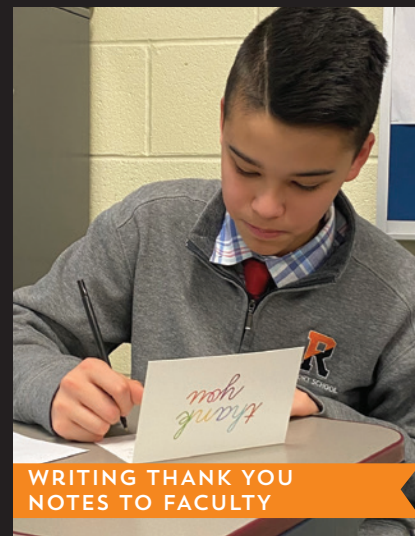

February is for Faculty 2020

In lieu of a giving day, Rectory embarked on its first giving month: February is for Faculty.

Donations to the annual fund were received with tributes to current and past faculty. In addition, we honored our faculty and staff with events, treats, and activities to let them know how much they are appreciated.

Candy jars, daily raffles, cupcakes, collaborative luncheons, coffee delivery, and thank you notes written by students were among the ways we expressed our appreciation for this special group of people.

"We give because of the incredible community and academic/co-curricular program. Our daughter is known and challenged in all aspects of school life."

WHY WE GIVE: Since joining the community in her 4th-grade year, Paige has been encouraged and supported in all aspects of school life. In the classroom, her teachers have pushed her to reach her potential while sustaining her growing self-confidence and self-advocacy skills. On the athletic fields, Paige has had the opportunity to grow as a student-athlete and has benefited from outstanding coaches that stress hard work and sportsmanship while fostering a love of the game and skill development.

On the stage, Paige has been encouraged to express herself and pushed to reach her potential. Paige has always enjoyed singing, playing guitar, and musical theater. Rectory's robust performing arts program has nurtured her talents and enabled her to perform almost daily. She actively participates in chorus, RecApella, and musical theater and has sung and played guitar at Chapel on numerous occasions.

As parents, we are incredibly grateful for all Rectory has done to support our daughter as a student, athlete, and performer through these critical middle school years. Because of the exceptional faculty and broad academic and co-curricular program at Rectory, Paige is well positioned for future success in high school and beyond.

Alumni

Rectory alumni have a longstanding tradition of giving back to the School. This year we are grateful to receive support from over 250 alumni who span class years from 1938 through 2018.

WHY I GIVE: "No educational institution has made a larger or more positive impact on my life."

Will Gahagan '96 with his wife Lizzie, and his two girls Rosie and Ellie.

Why I Give...

Each year a few of our donors share the reasons why they give to Rectory. While their answers are as diverse as their experiences, one common theme is the transforming effect that their Rectory experience has had upon their life.

Breck Perkins '73 with his daughter, Natalie '19

Breck S. Perkins '73, P'19

WHY I GIVE: "I give because Rectory made a huge difference in both my life and my daughter's education and confidence!"

Paul Kenichi Gray '09

WHY I GIVE: "It is the place I call home. Rectory is where I became the person I was meant to be."

After graduating from college, Paul returned to Rectory as an admissions associate, coach, dorm parent, and advisor for two years. He is now teaching at Brewster Academy.

Jackie and Charles Tannenbaum '98

Charles Tannenbaum '98

WHY I GIVE: "I give to Rectory because of the impact the school had on me. I learned so much about myself and the impact that I can have on others through the teachings of many great faculty such as George Groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Seaward. Rectory was there for me when I was at a difficult part of my life and I want to give back."

Lucy and Drew Jordan '84

Drew Jordan '84

WHY I GIVE: "I give to Rectory because I know without their personalized attention correcting some early education developmental issues that I would not have been as successful in my endeavors."

The 4th Korean Alumni at Rectory (KAR) reception and reunion was hosted by Won Tae Cho '91 in Seoul, Korea. The KAR group and the organization of receptions is supported by Min Jae Yoo '09.

GET READY TO ZOOM!

While the world is grappling with COVID-19, and our ability to gather in person has been curtailed, we are taking an opportunity to learn new ways to engage with our Rectory community. We will be rolling out virtual community gatherings, pre-reunion meetups and an Alumni Speaker series.

Pre-Reunion Zoom Gatherings

Our honored reunion classes last year were not able to celebrate on campus but what fun they had joining a Zoom gathering. The success of these virtual reunions has inspired us to make this a tradition as a lead-up to reunion weekends.

Catch up with your long lost friends and classmates from the comfort of your own home—stay safe and socialize with us!

Class of 1971, 50 Year Reunion Zoom: October 21, 2020

Class of 1996, 25 Year Reunion Zoom: November 11, 2020

Class of 2011, 10 Year Reunion Zoom: October 28, 2020

Stay tuned for additional information and let us know if you would like help setting up a Zoom gathering for your classmates.

Announcing our Virtual Alumni Speaker Series

Donations to Rectory support opportunities across the campus and throughout the year.

Thank you for allowing our educators to provide opportunities for children that go beyond the classroom, as it is those skills that will enhance and enrich for life!

Steve Warnick FACULTY

WHY I GIVE: "There is nothing more fulfilling than to support the inspiring work of Rectory."

Left: Steve Warnick with his advisor group; Right: Colleen O'Neil with her advisor group.

Students stay with the same advisor throughout their time at Rectory. Rectory's advisory program is designed to educate, support, and encourage our students' healthy growth. The relationship established between advisor and advisee is another way Rectory promotes growth in self-advocacy and confidence.

Continuous Generosity: The Bell Tower Society

The Bell Tower Society recognizes our most loyal annual fund supporters who have made a philanthropic commitment to Rectory School for three or more consecutive years.
